Bankruptcy

Spend just five minutes with Stephanie Curtis and you will see why her elite Dallas bankruptcy boutique has experienced enormous success for more than a decade. She isn't afraid to make tough decisions, which is why she is highly respected among colleagues and state and federal courts. She reminds clients to "do what they do best—focus on jobs and customers," while her Firm utilizes its considerable experience and breadth of knowledge to navigate the process.

Even where clients find themselves drowning in the most turbulent legal waters, Curtis, by keeping her mission constant, delivers results. "We are dedicated to delivering the best of the Firm in every engagement," she says.

The Firm's culture is truly unique in that it combines a small-firm atmosphere with cutting-edge practices. "We carry with us the progressive, entrepreneurial spirit that has always animated our Firm," Curtis says.

Curtis founded The Curtis Law Firm in 1999, now named Curtis | Castillo PC, after leaving a large national practice. She earned her B.B.A. in Finance in 1987 and her J.D., with honors, in 1990 from the University of Oklahoma. She was chosen as a Fellow by the Litigation Counsel of America in April 2007. She is a member of the Dallas Bar Association, American Bankruptcy Institute, and the Turnaround Management Association. She is a frequent lecturer on complex bankruptcy matters and is the go-to person for local media needing expertise on bankruptcy law. Her Firm is certified as a minority-owned business.
