"I attribute the success of my business to three key ingredients: stewardship, work ethic, and a strong passion for what I do."

Stephanie Curtis is President and founder of The Curtis Law Firm, a highly recognized bankruptcy boutique known for providing solutions in virtually every aspect of bankruptcy reorganization and commercial litigation. The Firm is certified by the NCTRCA as a minority/women-owned business and has a highly talented team of lawyers.

Practicing in Dallas for over 16 years, Ms. Curtis graduated from the University of Oklahoma, B.B.A.-Finance, 1987 and J.D. with honors, 1990. She began her legal career at one of Texas' largest law firms, but her entrepreneurial drive led to the opening of her own business in 1999.

Ms. Curtis was named one of D Magazine's "Best Lawyers in Dallas" for 2003 and "Best Lawyers Under 40 in Dallas" for 2002 and 2004, and by Texas Monthly as a "Texas Rising Star" for 2004 and "Texas Super Lawyer" for 2004, 2005 and 2006. She was also chosen by Modern Luxury Dallas as a "Dynamic Women of Dallas" for 2005 and as one of the "Top Attorneys and Law Firms of Dallas" for 2006.

Ms. Curtis is a member of Dallas Bar Association, American Bankruptcy Institute, Turnaround Management Association, Women's Finance Exchange, Meadows Museum, Dallas Theatre Centre, and Entrepreneurs' Organization and was recently chosen as a Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation. She serves on Northwood University's Board of Governors, People Empowerment Project's Board of Trustees and was a founding director of Native American Museum Foundation.

One of the most visible and successful bankruptcy litigators in Texas, Stephanie Curtis looks forward to serving the legal field and Dallas community in the future.
