The Curtis Law Firm, P.C.

Delivering Innovative and Sophisticated Legal Solutions

Immediate success for The Curtis Law Firm, P.C. has evolved into a trend that has continued for almost a decade. Since its inception in 1999, its President, Stephanie D. Curtis, has continued to build a nationally respected business and bankruptcy practice, known for delivering innovative and sophisticated legal solutions on complex matters. Ms. Curtis's firm is best known for its aggressive approach and result-oriented problem-solving strategies.

Ms. Curtis started her career as a bankruptcy and commercial lawyer in two of the nation's preeminent firms, Haynes & Boone, LLP and Jones Day. Eventually, Ms. Curtis's entrepreneurial drive led her to open her own practice. The model for her firm was predicated on her ardent belief that high-quality litigation services can come from a boutique firm with a vigilant focus on successful outcomes. Ms. Curtis has established just that, by crafting an atmosphere intent on client satisfaction. One of the primary goals for each attorney at The Curtis Law Firm, P.C. is to provide its business and individual clientele with the level of devoted and personalized attention sometimes missing from larger firms.

Ms. Curtis easily connects with companies in need of sophisticated legal counsel through shared entrepreneurial experiences. In addition to growing a specialized boutique law firm, Ms. Curtis has used her business acumen to expand into other successful endeavors. She currently serves as chairman of the board of a
